

Will Match Against The Gap Bring Home The Premiership?

Sunday, 06 August 2017

Tomorrow (Sunday 6 August 2017) our Premier League women could tie up the Premiership with just a point required to win the league! Our reserves could also tie up a finals finish.

Get down to The Gap to support the girls!

Please note, if the league is won, trophy presentation will be at final home game of the season. More details to come!
